Chapter 191.) What did Tom visit Ewell's house first?- Tom Robinson was coming home from work on the farm, and since he has to go to Ewell's house every day, Tom visited the house because Mayella asked her to do a job for her, where Tom, she just wanted to help her, went home and did the job for her. 2) Why does Scout think Mayella Ewell was "the most lonely person in the world"?- Scout thinks he's the most alone person in the word because he doesn't care about her. Your father doesn't care about her. Your father doesn't care about you because he doesn't care if he was okay and didn't call a doctor at all. 3) Describe Mayella's relationship with her father doesn't care about her, like when her father spends all the money that the family gets for alchahol, while Mayella, being the maternal figure because she takes care of the house and children and she is the oldest, spends money to get the children some ice cream. 4) How does Mr Gilmer's treatment of Atticus towards Mayella when he was standing, he was very educated towards her, to the point that he feels uncomfortable because no one is educated to her. When Mayella cries, Atticus makes her cry for a while and calms her down. So Atticus treats Tom with misrepresentation and contempt. Mr. Gilmer calls Tom a boy when he refers to Tom, and snipers and condescenses Tom after Tom answers the questions. Mr. Gilmer thinks Tom is not innocent and lies because of his race, not because of the idea that Tom Robinson, who is black, feels bad for Mayella, who is white, and has a higher social status. This makes Tom look like he doesn't understand his social status and that Tom is better than white people, even if he just wants to help her with the goodness of his heart. 6) Why is Dill sick?- Dill doesn't like the way and Mr. Gilmer is treating Tom. He doesn't like the fact that Mr. Gilmer is verbally abusing Tom, as when sneers and rolls his eyes after Tom responds when he's in the forum. Disturb Dill, and not adults, because Dill thinks of a different way. He does not understand the problem of race in society, and he realizes only that it is wrong, which disturbs him. Chapter 201.) The scout says that "Mr. Dolphus Raymond was an evil man." Are you right? Mr. Raymond is not bad, but smart because he is an ethical man. You can see that blacks are also and prefer it prefers Go out with them, and use the cover to be drunk to cover the fact that it hangs with them2). In most states in America, people drinking alcohol in public places are required to hide their bottle in a paper bag. Why Dolphus-Raymond hides Coca-Cola in a bag? -There hides Coca-Cola so people don't bother him on what he does and because the chooses to live the way he does. Give people a reason to understand him behavior of him because they assume that he is always drunk .3.) What, according to Atticus, is the thing that Mayella did wrong? -Mayella tried a color person and broke the company code kissing someone outside of her race. -The says that people were not born equal, using examples like some are more intelligent, cook better, or make more money. But in a court, people should be treated in the same way. Chapter 211.) What do you expect Jem the verdict? "Attic think the same? 2.) What is unusual about how long does the jury take to reach a verdict? A, is the foreseeable verdict or not? Due to the time of the history of history it was in time when segregation had a strong influence, so colored people would typically lost 3.) What the Reverend is sykes instructions to explore at à ¢ â, ¬ Å "stand # The attitude of people against the attitude of his people for atticus is full of respect because he did a good job on the defense of Tom Å ¢ robinson.ã, chapter 221.) Although atticus He didn't want his children in the field, defends Jem is rights to know what happened because he wants to be a role model, he realizes that Jem is growing and wants Jem to realize what the real world is And how difficult it is. *) Miss Maudie tells Jem that Å ¢ â,¬ "Things are never bad as they seem." Mr. Cunningham takes the jury a long time because he's defending Tom against the jury, and he's getting the charges on Tom. 4.) Why does Aunt Alexandra accept that the Cunninghams might be good because they defended Tom, they were ethical, and knew the difference between right or wrong. But he sees Cunninghams as under her and Finch's, so they're garbage. Â 5.) At the end of this chapter, Jem is a new theory about why Boo Radley doesn't just want to leave the house because he lives in a very cruel city, so he may not want to face it. He also doesn't want to leave because of all the rumors about him. Chapter 241.) Do you think missionary ladies are sincere in worrying about the "mrunas" (a tribe in Africa "? Give reasons for your answer. Since the tribe, Mrunas, are African-American, no one wants to go to them or help them except J. Grimes Everett. So they are probably not sincere because people are well and they just want to maintain their Apparitions and do their "Christian" work.2.) What is your opinion on Maycomb's ladies? Â Explain and support with quotes: MayComb's ladies seem to like gossip and talk about everything around them and everything that is happening. This is probably why the scout loves men more than the woman is hypocritical. The woman in Maycomb believes it is a bad thing to free free slaves and treat them almost equally, and that it treats different people differently is a good thing. However, they also help the tribe, the mrunas, because no one else will do it, in pity, "they were not .... Hypocrites." (page 234) â 3.) He briefly explains how Tom was killed. What is Atticus's explanation for Tom's attempted escape? Tom was trying to escape a fence, and the prison guards warned him to stop. They shot the air a couple of times to scare him, but while Tom continued to rise, the guards shot Tom Semiassette and killed. If Tom had both arms, he would. The explanation of Atticus for Tom's escape was that Tom lost hope, which was proven of the odds of white men and decided to take his chance. Â 4.) How, in this chapter, do we see Aunt Alexandra in a new light? How does Miss Maudie chew her? - Let's see Aunt Alexandra change because we see she'sfor Tom and his wife and family when he feels sad when Tom dies. It is also upset that the city does not want to do. Do it.is doing the dirty work, and the city puts all the problems on Atticus, who feels upset and protective for. - Miss Maudies supports it by agreeing on civil rights and equal treatment of blacks and whites. A 5.) What shows the Scout has a new respect for Aunt Alexandra vhen he picks up the tray to serve the guests with an attitude that if Aunt Alexandra can stay strong in front of the guests, so she can act as if she likes the woman. Chapter 251. How will the MayComb react to news of Tom's death? - They're not sympathizers or sympathizers of Tom's death because they think it's typical for a black man to die. They pass it as nothing more than mere gossip.2.) Comment on the idea that Tom's death was â" ATypicalâ".- The idea that Tom's death was typical means the MyCombia likes to generalize things, thinking it's normal when a black man dies. They already think of very few black people, so they don't think it's a surprise when Tom tried to run. 3.) Explains the contrast Scout draws between the Court and the secret courts of men's hearts is that while the Court appears and acts as a fair trial, in the hearts of the men, they are all against Tom Robinson and they are not fair towards him. A 4.) Why doesn't Jem want the scout to tell Atticus about Bob EwellA¢ a ¬ "At the end of the Chapter?" Was that a wise thing to ask her to do? Either Spiega perché or perché not. They don't want to tell their dad why they don't want to put more things in his mind that children might be in danger. It was wise because it would allow Atticus to focus more on other things and put less stress on him. Chapter 261.) In her lecture on Hitler, Miss Gates says that - "We (American People) don't believe in pursuing everything ... what strikes you as odd as the reader of this statement? A" - The strange thing about what Miss Gates says is that she believes it is revolting and morally wrong when Hitler persecutes Jews, but it is okay to persecute blacks in his own city. So she is portraying a strong hypocrisy. A 2.) Why is the Scout so perplexed by Miss Gates thinks that Hitler was a horrible person to oppress Jews, and that Jews are good people, She oppresses blacks in her city, which is basically the same thing Hitler did, and contradicts what he says and what he does, that the scout finds confusions. \( \text{A}^{\sc} \) 3.) Why did the Scout's questions upset Jem? There is a simple answer, to the question "How can I hate Hitler ANA\( \text{c}, so turn around a nasty people own Home? \( \text{a}^{\sc} - Jem takes his questions personally because it reminds him of The Case of Tom Robinson. He's already asked how how to lost, because she lost her, and how she entered the case, that she feels irritated to not know the answer and feels empathic. There is really no answer, because you can't control how people act or think. You just have to accept how these people think that way. Chapter 271.) What three bob ewell does to warn aunt alexandra is to break into the house of the judge taylor from the back door without permission. bob ewll also harassed helen robinson while she tries to go to work, telling her to have to walk in the street and not be able to oare the public road because bob the "slam" out of the road. and finally, when he found a job, he was immediately fired a few days later for laziness. Â 2.) why, according to aptitude, bob ewell brings grudges? According to aptitude, bob ewell brings anger to anyone who finds out is involved in the robinson tom or has destroyed his credibility in court. he went against the judge Taylor because the judge had a bad attitude towards bob as deride or let the case continue. bob ewell also went against helen robinson though she had nothing to do with the case. He has it with him because everyone knew that he was trash, a racist and gruesome who had a grudge against the people involved in the court. â chapter 281.) how do the opening pages of this chapter remind us of the previous events of the book in which it was said that jem broke his arm at the age of thirteen. So it took 28 chapters to understand the initial sentence. 2.) Scout decides to keep his costume while walking home. Â how does this affect your understanding of what happens on the road? Since scouts hold his costume, he loses the effectiveness of his senses, like his vision. He must touch things to know what is going on, and he realizes that they were attacked, from her he did not know exactly what happened and who did. A 3.) Application of the corner for man in What causes the "polished and clean line" on the glossy paint that Mrs. crenshaw put on the attack of bob ewell? aptcus explained the attack of ewell who was crazy and crazy, or "bad as For having the courage to try to kill children. What is the reason for Heck Tate? Tate? attack? Heck Tate? Heck Tate? Attack? Heck Tate? H because he was the person who looked at them several times. There was that part in which Boo folded Jem's trousers when he intruses their backyard, left the scout gifts and Jem in the tree, and wrapped scout in a blanket when she was out and she was cold. The relationship between Boo and the children is that he could be a great brother for them, or a hero for them because he saved them and took care of them. Chapter 301. Who thinks Atticus caused Bob Ewell's death? - Atticus firmly believes that Bob Ewell's death has been self-inflicted? - Heck Tates insists that Bob Ewell's death has been self-inflicted because he wants to protect Jem from the city thinking and making rumors that Jem It's a murderer, and she is also protecting Boo because Sa Boo doesn't want to do, who is in public .3. Heck Tate has the right to save the advertisement of an investigation to Boo? Give reasons for your reply .- I think Heck Tate's decision to save Boo is right because he is giving him the privacy of him and protecting. Chapter 311. How do the events of the final chapters explain the first sentence in the whole novel? - The first phrase of the novel says that when Jem was thirteen, he broke his arm. But the final chapters take up and explains that phrase, saying how the arm has broken and what happened after.2.) How it makes the explorer to make sense of a previous observation of Atitcusâ € ™ while it is On the Radley portico? - When he sat on the Radley porch, he started to see things from the perspective of Boo. He realizes how the neighbors treated him that he must close himself at home and avoid contact with anyone, that he feels sorry for him .3.) How much surprise is to find what Boo Radley is really? History before this point prepared the reader for this discovery? - It's not so surprising that Boo is attentive and shy, but even strange, being an adult man and still fear of going home alone in the dark. It's not surprising because there have been several things that Boo has done to help children while they are hidden, how to give gifts and save their lives, which allows you to realize that he is a good person. person
