Masonic Humor Bob and Bill were brother Masons and great friends for most of their lives. Each had agreed that when one of them passed on to that Grand Lodge above, he would attempt to make contact with the other and tell him all about what he was like. As so happened, Bill went to heaven, first. One night Bob was lying off to sleep when he heard Bill's voice calling to him. "Is that you, Bill?" "Yes, Bob. I am honoring our agreement." "Oh, MY.... what's it like?" Bob asked with some anticipation. "It's nice, nothing you could ever imagine. The lodge here is fantastic.... better than any lodge we ever saw on Earth. The meetings are always well attended, the friendship nights always have tons of new people just itching to join, and the spirit of fellowship blankets the entire place." Bob's eyes teared up. "Oh, my, it's just like we'd hoped. I'm so happy for you. But I have to ask.... that sounds really great, but you didn't really seem all that excited. What's wrong?" "Well, I have some good news and some bad. The good news is that we're raising a fellow to the third degree next Wednesday." "That's fantastic. What's the bad news?" The brother replied "I, officer, am going to a lecture on Masonry!" Bemused, the policeman asked, "And just where are you going to hear a lecture on Masonry at this time of night?" The brother replied, "From my wife!!!" A man is walking through the recreation ground of his local park when he notices a huge fight going on in full fury on the football field he is passing.
