FlagView HistoryA recent Red Dead Online update saw the edition of a new feature called Frontier Pursuits. The update saw the addition of [three Specialist Roles three Specialist Roles], one of which is the Red Dead Online Collector's role. As a Collector, players will hunt down items for Madam Nazar, meaning that they'll need to know the Red Dead Online Madam Nazar location on a daily basis. Unfortunately, finding Madam Nazar's location in Red Dead Online can be tricky to say the least. After your initial meeting with her, she will move around to a different location each day. To make it even better, Madam Nazar's location in Red Dead Online isn't always marked on the map, meaning you might need to do a lot of searching. Thankfully, there are a couple of great resources out there that will help you, including this page. Some Redditors have taken it upon themselves to create a megathread that is constantly being updated with Madam Nazar's Red Dead Online location. This information has allowed us to create a daily list of Madam Nazar's location in Red Dead Online, which can be seen below. Madam Nazar Location Map Date South of Thieves Landing September 11, 2019 West of Blackwater September 12, 2019 (Image credit: Rockstar Games) Where is Madam Nazar today in Red Dead Online? If you want to give the Collector role a try you need to talk to Madam Nazar as soon as possible. However, this character roams across the map, and it's not always easy to track her down. The Collector role is perfect if you're the type that loves nothing more than scouring your environment for secrets and valuable trinkets. Nazar will have you on the lookout for heirlooms, treasure, and rare herbs, so with this Red Dead Online Madam Nazar location guide I'll help you locate her and get you on the path of a forager.The first Madam Nazar locationOnce you're done with the tutorial missions, you can find Madam Nazar. Open your map and look for a mission marker called 'To Become a Collector'. Following the marker to its location introduces you to Madam Nazar and gives you the opportunity to become a Collector, one of three roles in Red Dead Online.However, Madam Nazar will not stay in this location long.Where is Madam Nazar today?After meeting her the first time, it can be a little tricky to find Madam Nazar's location. She roams around the map and thus the spot in which she can be found changes daily. This would be a problem for all but budding Collectors such as yourself, but you still need to find her to turn in the fruits of your scavenger hunts.There is one easy workaround, however. If you have a Collector's Map equipped—in addition to helping you find the items on the map—it also reveals Madam Nazar's current location. This is by far the easiest way to track her down. There are 12 possible Madam Nazar locations, but there's no way to predict where Nazar will end up on each day, so stick to your maps rather than checking all 12 spots in the hope you get lucky.What is the Collector role in Red Dead Online?(Image credit: Rockstar Games)The Collector role is one of three main ones in Red Dead Online. To become a Collector, you'll have to meet Madam Nazar and buy a Collector's Bag from her. A Collector's Bag costs 15 Gold Bars. You can get this premium currency for real-world cash, but you can also find Gold Nuggets in RDO itself: 100 Gold Nuggets makes one Gold Bar. Equally, if you find all 54 GTA Online playing cards, you can get the Collector's Bag for free.With the bag in your possession you can start getting to work. Being a Collector means finding hidden items and treasures across the map, and selling them to Madam Nazar for profit. The unique skills you earn from being a Collector will make it easier to find these hidden items. As you move up in the Collector rank, you'll get special rewards, too.(Image credit: Rockstar Games)Your first job if you want to be a Collector is to buy a Treasure Map from Madam Nazar. These maps point you towards hidden treasure, which you can then take back to Nazar to sell for profit.If you use Eagle Eye while searching for treasure, the goodies you're after will glow orange. Collecting these items increases your Collector rank, which will, in turn, give you new abilities to make it easier to find items.You can sell items to Madam Nazar at any time, but you'll get higher returns if you sell a complete set of items at once, as opposed to separately. So it's best to collect everything before heading back to the elusive lady and selling as much as you can in one go. Red Dead Redemption 2 allows players to take on the role of Collector in its online mode, but in order to so, players must find Madam Nazar. Red Dead Redemption 2 players wanting to obtain the role of collector will need to find a certain NPC by the name of Madam Nazar. Though finding her initially and beginning the quest-line is easy as she is marked on the player's map, subsequent visits will require quite a bit more leg work. This is because Madam Nazar moves around Red Dead Redemption 2's online map on a daily basis, taking up one of 12 locations randomly each day. Thankfully, there are a few tricks players can use to make finding her easier, which will come in handy to those wanting to master the Collector's Career. Continue scrolling to keep reading Click the button below to start this article in quick view. Start now Although the player could theoretically travel to all 12 locations, Red Dead Online's map is pretty large and this would be a huge time sink. Because of this, it is more than likely better to make use of one of these tricks to find the elusive Madam Nazar. Today, she is located in The Heartlands in New Hanover, right near the Dakota river. First, if the player has purchased a collector's map from Madam Nazar, using it will reveal her exact location. Players should be cautious, however, as doing so will overwrite any previous collector's map the player had active. It is best to finish one map before activating the next, as doing so is the most efficient way to go about it. Another way to find her is to use a well known glitch which has yet to be patched. This glitch occurs whenever the player is wanted and they receive a bounty. If these conditions are met, all 12 of her locations will appear on the map, allowing the player to check one at a time. Perhaps the most useful tool in finding Madam Nazar is the hard work of other players. Over on Reddit, players can visit r/RedDeadDailies in order to get information about all the daily occurrences in Red Dead Online, including the location of Madam Nazar. In addition to this, there is a more focused outlet for information in the form of @MadamNazarIO Twitter posts. Each day Madam Nazar updates her Twitter with her exact location, making this the best place by far for would be collectors to get their info. Hopefully these tips help players consistently find Madam Nazar, as going on a wild goose chase across Red Dead Online's expansive map can be rather tedious. The Collector role is a rather important one, so knowing how to find Madam Nazar is equally as vital. Read Dead Redemption 2 is available now for PC, PS4, Stadia, and Xbox One. While all it takes is a visit to the Legendary Bounty Hunter in Rhodes to become a Bounty Hunter, or a stop at a post office to start up your Trader business, becoming a Collector in Red Dead Redemption 2's online multiplayer mode is a little more difficult. To begin dealing in tarot cards and other collectibles, you'll first need to track down the enigmatic Madam Nazar.How To Become A Collector in Red Dead Online Collectors can dig up buried treasure with their trusty Pennington Field Shovel. Rockstar Games To become a Collector players must purchase a Collector's Bag from Madam Nazar. Like other Roles, the initial investment is steep: 15 gold bars. However, players of Grand Theft Auto Online have a shot at foregoing the cost — any player who has found the 54 playing cards hidden around Los Santos has already proven their collecting acumen.Once you have the Collector's Bag, you can begin hunting down rare items, like sets of tarot cards (Madam Nazar will buy them one at a time, but it's better to assemble the whole set first). You can also track down "sacred collection" items like a boar hair brush, eagle egg and the bone arrowhead. As a Collector in "Red Dead Online," players can earn a lamp that attaches to their horse. Rockstar Games Earning XP as the Collector grants players access to variants of the Lancaster Repeater and Volcanic Pistol, plus completely new tools, like the Refined Binoculars, Metal Detector and Pennington Field Shovel. Collectors can also learn new skills like "Divination," which rumbles near collectibles, or the ability to collect herbs from horseback.Madam Nazar Location Madam Nazar operates out of a travelling cart in "Red Dead Online." Rockstar Games Unlike the two other Roles now available in Red Dead Online after the Frontier Pursuits update, there's no single location to visit in order to get started in the job. Madam Nazar is a nomad. On September 10, the day the update was released, Madam Nazar could be found near O'Creagh's Run, the mountain lake west of Annesburg where players take on a bear in the Red Dead Redemption 2 campaign. On Wednesday, Nazar was spotted near Thieves' Landing, south of the railroad tracks that run just outside the bandit town and just north of Manteca Falls.Madam Nazar changes locations — seemingly daily — so checking a constantly updated resource, like this Collector "Megathread" on Reddit, can be a good way to find her current location. With the update only in its second day, a replicable pattern to Madam Nazar's location changes hasn't yet been discovered.How To Become a Trader or Bounty Hunter in Red Dead OnlineWhile becoming a Collector will take some searching, picking up the Trader and Bounty Hunter Roles is much simpler. To become a Trader, visit a Post Office. You'll be teaming with J.B. Cripps, who runs the business out of your camp. As with other roles, it costs 15 gold bars to become a Trader, though it's free to anyone playing Red Dead Redemption 2 on PlayStation 4.Becoming a Bounty Hunter in Red Dead Online begins with a visit to Rhodes, where you'll need to buy a Bounty Hunter License from the Legendary Bounty Hunter. As with other Roles, it costs 15 gold bars. But, same as other Roles, there's a loophole: if you linked your Twitch account with your Rockstar Games Social Club account before September 8, becoming a Bounty Hunter is free.Of course, you don't have to choose between Bounty Hunter, Collector and Trader. As long as you have the gold, you can take on all three Roles at once.
