If you thought it was scary trying to escape a mysterious multi-level house with your grandmother hunting you, you're in for a surprise. In Granny 2, the grandmother is reached by the faithful husband, who is both left and evil as the grandmother herself. Grandpa has hearing problems. To have a chance to survive and escape from the house of the horrors of the grandmother, it is worth remembering that the husband of the grandmother has hearing problems. So, if you're stuck in a room with your grandfather, there's a chance he didn't hear you and you can survive until you find a hiding place and stay still like a statue. However, do not test your luck, because once your grandfather has seen you, his attack will be much more powerful than the grandmother's attack. So, if Grandpa puts your hands on you, it could be over. While Grandma catches you, you may have a small chance to survive her attack. ANCHE CONTROL:A 1945 Air Forces for PC (Download for free) Scout out potential hiding places as soon as you enter a new room. While you may be tempted to search for clues or a way of escape, whenever you enter a new room, the first task should be to find a hiding place. Some of the hiding places you should keep an eye on to include closets and beds. As you can easily hide under the beds in the grandmother's house and in all the closets where you come across. Make sure grandma doesn't hear you moving around her house. While the grandfather has hearing difficulties, the grandmother is likely to hear a drop of brooch. So try to be as quiet as you can when you explore Grandma's house. Remember, you only have five days to escape the grandmother's house. If you can't escape Grandma's house within five days, Grandma will kill you. So make sure you use your time wisely and keep an eye on the most clues you can find. As if to escape from the grandmother's house you will have to find a valid way to escape. AdmittedIt is worth taking any key.
