Requirements and offerings may vary by state.‡ Required Liability Protects you if you cause an accident Example: You cause an accident with another car. The other driver's knee is hurt from the impact and their car is damaged in the accident. Your liability coverage can pay for their related medical care and car repairs up to your policy's liability limits. Recommended Comprehensive & collision Protects your car from the unexpected Example: If your car is stolen or damaged by a non-collision event (including hitting an animal, fire, hail damage, other acts of nature, vandalism, and theft), comprehensive can cover your car repairs.Example: If your car is damaged in an accident, collision can cover your car repairs regardless of who's at fault. Pays for towing services and more Example: Your car breaks down and you need to get it to a repair shop. We'll arrange to tow your car anywhere in a 15-mile radius or to the nearest shop. Protects you from drivers who can't pay for damages Example: You're rear-ended by a driver who doesn't have car insurance. UM/UIM can cover your medical bills and car repairs up to your limits. Car insurance, specifically liability coverage, is required in nearly every state to protect you financially in case you cause injuries or property damage to someone. With additional coverages, your auto insurance can also help pay to repair or replace your own vehicle.
