Originally recorded by the Stephens Group of the New Vaudeville Band in 1967, as a number of Neo-British music room, this track version became a hit in Australia and South Africa. No However, in the rest of the world, an almost simultaneous coverage was a great success for Herman's hermits. The song was a success traced again in 1976 by The Carpenters. First recordings The song was introduced in the Album 1966 Winchester Cathedral by Group Geoff Stephens' from the New Vaudeville band; As hit in this group "Winchester Cathedral", "There is a silence spy" was conceived as a series of neo-British music room, although it is a less ostentative example of this style. The first single version "There's a silence spy" was recorded in 1966 by Gary and the Hornets, a teenager / male band Franklin, Ohio, whose versione € titled "Silence Spanish ", produced by Lou ReiznerÂ € became a regional success and showed signs of breaking the national level in January 1967; The only would arrive at Number 4 in Cincinnati and No. 3, ERIE PA. However, Hermitos Hermitas was launched in the US in January 1967 to reach the Top 30 of Billboard Hot 100 in three weeks and passed a peak # 4 providing the group its last US top ten hita Gold certification for sales in the United States of a million award-winning units that April. The record carved two upper positions in Silver Dollar Search for 3A 10 Mar 1967 in WLS. [1] for a general classification of # 26 for 1967 [2] and covered The Boss 30 to 8â € 22 of March 1967 in Khj. [3] In the United Kingdom Herman Hermits' "There is a silence spy" I would reach the number 7. Herman's sleeve's success led to the launch of the original band New Vaudeville band as a single in some territories with both the graphics versions in Australia, with no peaks of No. 5 (from Herman Hermits) and no 12 (New Vaudeville Band) and also in South Africa, where the New Vaudeville band Bested Hermits' from Herman No. 9 peak, arriving No. 4. graphic performance (1967) Peakposition Australia 5 â Utria 19 BÂ € Lgica 16 Canada (rpm) 2 France 21 Germany 26 Ireland 7 Malta 2 Netherlands (Dutch Top 40) 15 New Zealand (Official Plan New Zealand MUSIC) 10 SINGAPORE ARE FRICA 2 SOUTH 9 UK SINGLES CHART 7 US BILLBOARD HOT 100 [4] 4 US CASH BOX TOP 100 5] 3 Chart (1967) Post Canada [6] 22 United Kingdom [7] 77 US Billboard Hot 100 [8] 50 US Billboard Easy Listening [9] 10 US Cash Box [10] 35 Version Carpenters "Há a silly body (everyone) "cover the s carpenters' single, "there's a silence spy (all around the world)" Single by carpentersfrom the album to Kind of Hushb-side "(I'm caught between) Goodbye and I love you" releasedfebruary 12, 1976Recordeddecember 1975GenRepopleGTH2: & Msongwriter (s) Geoff Stephenses ReedProducer (s) Richard Carpentercarpenters Singles Chronology "Solitaire" (1975) "There's a kind of silence (all over the world)" (1976) "I need to be in love" (1976) The Carpenters Reaffect "There's a Spice of De "There's a silence spy (all over the world)" Â € for your 1976 Lobbum launch to Kind of Hush for which he served as first single, reaching No. 12 on Billboard Hot 100 and that offering the carpenters' his third third level No. 1 at the sketch stop easy.
